INDUSTRY OVERVIEW

INDUSTRY OVERVIEW

- Storage is the top performing real estate asset class in the US over the past 5, 10 and 20 year periods⁽¹⁾
- Demand is driven by population growth, change of circumstances and smaller living and work spaces - the 6 D's (density, disaster, dislocation, divorce, downsizing and death):
 - Examples: moving, intensification, renovation, insurance claims, business incubation, etc.
- The Canadian storage market is estimated to be 90 million sq ft across 3,000 stores (2.5 sq ft per capita), the US market is estimated to be 2.7 billion sq ft across over 51,000 stores (8.3 sq ft per capita)
- The top 10 Canadian operators own less than 15% of these stores (the industry is highly fragmented providing acquisition opportunities)

INDUSTRY DYNAMICS

- The superior performance of the storage industry has been a result of the following factors:
 - Bargaining Power of Buyers: Very Low – small $ purchase, high switching costs
 - Bargaining Power of Suppliers: Very Low – historically almost non-existent
 - Intensity of Rivalry: Low – localized competition and small transaction size
 - Threat of Substitutes: Low – limited options
 - Threat of New Entrants: Low – difficulty in getting zoning approvals and significant increase in development charges (big positive for existing owners)

INDUSTRY PERFORMANCE

Why will this superior performance continue?

- Canadian population continues to grow – it is now projected to be 100 million by 2100
- Average condo/apartment size continues to shrink
- Canadians continue to acquire more “stuff”
- The USA has an average of 8.3 sq ft of storage per capita versus an estimated 2.5 sq ft per capita in Canada (pent up demand)
- Weighted average inherent cap rate of the US Public REITs is 4%
- In 2000, 1 in 20 Americans had used storage in the last 12 months. In 2015, this number had improved to over 1 in 10
- In 2015, 1 in 20 Canadians had used storage in the last 12 months suggesting that as Canadians become more aware of the product, demand and utilization will increase

INDUSTRY POSITIVE: Consistent Outperformance

Self Storage has delivered the highest ROI and lowest volatility of any REIT Sector

Since 1994, self storage REIT returns have outperformed all other equity REIT sectors while experiencing the least volatility

- The industry is expected to continue to generate substantial NOI growth
- Savings expected through improved scale, new technology and centralized infrastructure

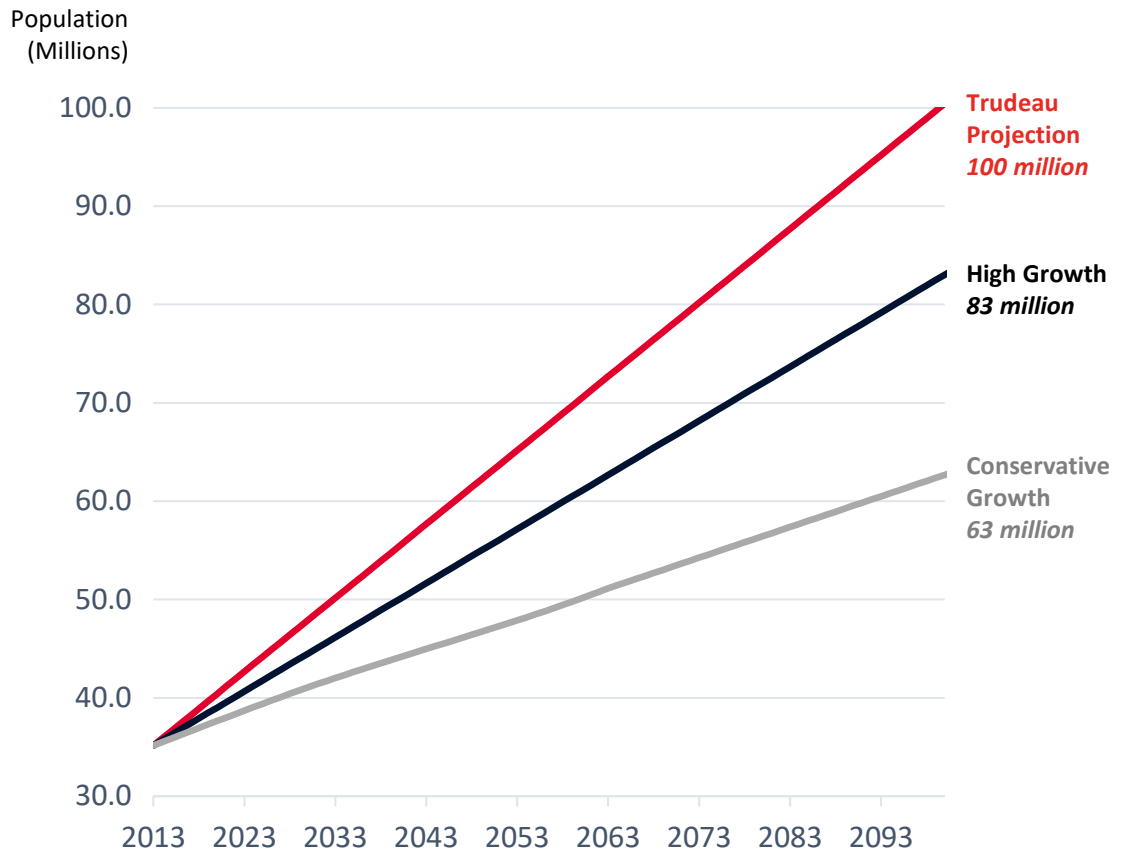

Five Forces Driving Self Storage	Impact
Competitive Rivalry	Historically Favourable – geographically limited
Customer Bargaining Power	Very Favourable – not price driven
Threat of Substitute Products	Favourable – Very few cost effective options
Supplier Bargaining Power	Neutral – Limited, but increasing
Threat of New Entrants	Neutral – Limited, but increasing entry barriers

Note: Data sourced from NAREIT 2017 published data. Volatility ratio defined as the standard deviation of return divided by return.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

Acquisitions

- SVI purchases assets from related parties, in particular from Access Storage. To govern such potential related party transactions the Corporation has established an Acquisition Committee and developed an Acquisition Committee Mandate
- The Acquisition Committee is comprised of eight voting members, six members being independently appointed and independent of management. Acquisition Committee members who are deemed to be in a conflict of interest position with respect to related party transactions are required to abstain from voting
- The Acquisition Committee Mandate is to review, evaluate and approve the terms of all acquisition transactions proposed in the context of the current strategic direction of the Corporation. In particular, and with respect to all related party transactions, the Acquisition Committee has the authority to appoint appraisers, environmental consultants, and professional advisors to evaluate and report to the Acquisition Committee on the suitability of such transactions. Thereafter, the Acquisition Committee provides its recommendation as to whether the Board of Directors should approve an acquisition
- The Board of Directors must accept the Acquisition Committee's recommendation on any related party transaction
- The Committee and Access Storage are governed by a formula for evaluating acquisition opportunities:
 - acquisitions that have an average occupancy greater than 65% or are more than 65% developed or are within a 5km radius of an existing SVI store are opportunities to be pursued by StorageVault
 - acquisitions that have an average occupancy less than 65% or are less than 65% developed are opportunities to be pursued by Access Storage

WHY STORAGE IS A SMART PLACE TO INVEST

- Business is driven by population growth - Canadian population is now projected to grow from 36 million to over 100 million by 2100
- Average house and apartment sizes continue to shrink
- SVI completed $146.2M in acquisitions in fiscal 2015, $178.4M in fiscal 2016, $485.4M in fiscal 2017, $171.9M in fiscal 2018, $372.7M in fiscal 2019 and $11.5M to date in 2020
- Scale is a significant advantage in the storage industry and is becoming more important
- SVI has the largest and best platform in Canada (resulting in significantly better NOI margins)
- C-Suite and Board of Directors have extensive storage and public markets experience
- Management team has a proven track record of success in the storage business - over 200 years of combined experience in the storage industry by senior management
- Industry metrics: 60%+ NOI margins, low debt is a profit centre, very low capex, 3 employees for every 100,000 sq ft

RIGHTS OF ACTION FOR DAMAGES OR RESCISSION

The following statutory rights of action for damages or rescission are only available to a purchaser of securities of StorageVault in the event that this corporate presentation is deemed to be an offering memorandum pursuant to applicable securities legislation in certain provinces of Canada. These remedies, or notice with respect thereto, must be exercised, or delivered, as the case may be, by the purchaser within the time limits prescribed by the applicable provisions of the provincial securities legislation. Purchasers should refer to the applicable securities legislation for the complete text of these rights or consult with a legal adviser. Where used in this section, “Misrepresentation” means an untrue statement of a material fact or an omission to state a material fact that is required to be stated or that is necessary to make a statement not misleading in light of the circumstances in which it was made.

Ontario

Securities legislation in Ontario provides that purchasers of securities are entitled to rights of action for rescission or damages where an offering memorandum and any amendment to it contains a Misrepresentation. In accordance with Section 130.1 of the Securities Act (Ontario) (the “Ontario Act”), in the event that an offering memorandum or any amendment thereto contains a Misrepresentation, a purchaser who purchases securities offered by such offering memorandum during the period of distribution has, without regard to whether the purchaser relied upon the Misrepresentation, a right of action against the issuer for damages, or, while still the owner of the such securities purchased by that purchaser, for rescission, in which case, if the purchaser elects to exercise the right of rescission, the purchaser will have no right of action for damages against the issuer, provided that: (a) the issuer will not be liable if it proves that the purchaser purchased the securities with knowledge of the Misrepresentation; (b) in the case of an action for damages, the issuer will not be liable for all or any portion of the damages that it proves do not represent the depreciation in value of the securities as a result of the Misrepresentation relied upon; and (c) in no case will the amount recoverable in any action exceed the price at which the securities were sold to the purchaser.

A purchaser resident in Ontario should refer to the provisions of the Ontario Act and its regulations for particulars of the rights and defences discussed above and consult with a lawyer. The rights discussed above are in addition to and without derogation from any other right or remedy which a purchaser might have at law.

No action shall be commenced to enforce these statutory rights more than: (a) in an action for rescission, 180 days from the date of the transaction that gave rise to the cause of action; or (b) in an action for damages, the earlier of: (i) 180 days after the plaintiff first had knowledge of the facts giving rise to the cause of action; or (ii) three years after the date of the transaction that gave rise to the cause of action.

Saskatchewan

A purchaser resident in the Province of Saskatchewan is given certain rights of action under The Securities Act, 1988 (Saskatchewan) (the “Saskatchewan Act”) if this corporate presentation or any amendment to this corporate presentation contains a Misrepresentation. These rights include, but are not limited to:

1. Section 80.1 – on receipt of an amended offering memorandum delivered in accordance with Subsection 80.1(3) of the Saskatchewan Act, the right to withdraw from an agreement to purchase securities by delivering a notice to the person who or company that is selling the securities indicating an intention not to be bound by the purchase agreement, such notice to be delivered within two business days after receipt of the amended offering memorandum.
2. Subsections 138(1) and 138(2) – a right of action for rescission or for damages against the issuer, its directors and every person selling the securities on behalf of the issuer where the offering memorandum and any amendment to the offering memorandum contains a Misrepresentation.
3. Subsection 138.1(3) – a right of action for damages against the issuer, its directors and every person selling the securities on behalf of the issuer for a Misrepresentation in advertising and sales literature.
4. Subsection 138.2(1) – a right of action for damages against an individual who makes a verbal Misrepresentation made before or contemporaneously with the purchase of the securities.
5. Subsection 141(1) – a right to void the purchase agreement and recover the purchase price if the securities are sold by a vendor who is trading in contravention of the Saskatchewan Act or the regulations to the Saskatchewan Act.
6. Subsection 141(2) – a right of action for rescission or for damages if the offering memorandum or any amendment to the offering memorandum is not delivered to the purchaser as required by subsection 80.1 of the Saskatchewan Act.

Such rights of rescission and damages are subject to certain limitations including the following: (a) if the purchaser elects to exercise its right of rescission against the issuer, it shall have no right of action for damages against that party; (b) in an action for damages, a defendant will not be liable for all or any portion of the damages that the defendant proves do not represent the depreciation in value of the securities resulting from the Misrepresentation relied on; (c) no person or company, other than the issuer, will be liable for any part of the offering memorandum or any amendment to it purporting to be made on the person's or company's own authority as an expert or purporting to be a copy of or an extract from the person's or company's own report, opinion or statement as an expert, unless the person or company failed to conduct a reasonable investigation sufficient to provide reasonable grounds for a belief that there had been no Misrepresentation or believed there had been a Misrepresentation; (d) in no case shall the amount recoverable exceed the price at which the securities were offered; and no person or company is liable in an action for rescission or damages if that person or company proves that the purchaser purchased the securities with knowledge of the Misrepresentation.

A purchaser resident in Saskatchewan should refer to the provisions of the Saskatchewan Act and its regulations for particulars of the rights and defences discussed above and consult with a lawyer. The rights discussed above are in addition to and without derogation from any other right or remedy which a purchaser might have at law.

Pursuant to the Saskatchewan Act, the rights discussed above must be exercised within certain time periods. These time periods are: (a) an action for rescission must be started within 180 days after the date of the transaction that gave rise to the action; (b) an action for damages must be started by the earlier of (i) one year after the purchaser first had knowledge of the facts giving rise to the action; or (ii) six years after the date of the transaction that gave rise to the action.

Manitoba

Section 141.1 of the Securities Act (Manitoba) (the “Manitoba Act”) provides that where an offering memorandum contains a Misrepresentation, a purchaser who purchases a security offered by the offering memorandum is deemed to have relied upon that Misrepresentation, if it was a Misrepresentation at the time of purchase, and has a right of action for rescission against the issuer or has a right of action for damages against: (a) the issuer; (b) every director of the issuer at the date of the offering memorandum; and (c) every person who or company that signed the offering memorandum. If the purchaser elects to exercise its right of rescission against the issuer, the Purchaser shall have no right of action for damages against a person or company referred to above.

If a Misrepresentation is contained in a record that is incorporated by reference in, or that is deemed to be incorporated into, an offering memorandum, the Misrepresentation is deemed to be contained in the offering memorandum.

When a Misrepresentation is contained in an offering memorandum, no person or company is liable: (a) if the person or company proves that the purchaser had knowledge of the Misrepresentation; (b) other than with respect to the issuer, if the person or company proves: (i) that the offering memorandum was sent to the purchaser without the person's or company's knowledge or consent, and (ii) that, after becoming aware that it was sent, the person or company promptly gave reasonable notice to the issuer that it was sent without the person's or company's knowledge and consent; (c) other than with respect to the issuer, if the person or company proves that, after becoming aware of the Misrepresentation, the person or company withdrew the person's or company's consent to the offering memorandum and gave reasonable notice to the issuer of the withdrawal and the reason for it; (d) other than with respect to the issuer, if, with respect to any part of the offering memorandum purporting to be made on the authority of an expert or to be a copy of, or an extract from, an expert's report, opinion or statement, the person or company proves that the person or company did not have any reasonable grounds to believe and did not believe that: (i) there had been a Misrepresentation; or (ii) the relevant part of the offering memorandum: (A) did not fairly represent the expert's report, opinion or statement, or (B) was not a fair copy of, or an extract from, the expert's report, opinion or statement; or (e) other than with respect to the issuer, with respect to any part of the offering memorandum not purporting to be made on an expert's authority and not purporting to be a copy of, or an extract from, an expert's report, opinion or statement, unless the person or company: (i) did not conduct an investigation sufficient to provide reasonable grounds for a belief that there had been no Misrepresentation; or (ii) believed there had been a Misrepresentation.

Such rights of rescission and damages are subject to certain limitations including the following: (a) in an action for damages, a defendant is not liable for all or any part of the damages that it proves do not represent the depreciation in value of the securities as a result of the Misrepresentation; and (b) the amount recoverable shall not exceed the price at which the securities were offered under the offering memorandum.

No action may be commenced to enforce a right: (a) in the case of an action for rescission, more than 180 days after the day of the transaction that gave rise to the cause of action; or (b) in any other case, more than the earlier of (i) 180 days after the day that the plaintiff first had knowledge of the facts giving rise to the cause of action, or (ii) two years after the day of the transaction that gave rise to the cause of action.

A purchaser resident in Manitoba should refer to the provisions of the Manitoba Act and its regulations for particulars of the rights and defences discussed above and consult with a lawyer. The rights discussed above are in addition to and without derogation from any other right or remedy which a purchaser might have at law.
